FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Technical Meeting – January 2017
IMA® Inland Empire Chapter

Rancho Cucamonga, CA, December 14, 2016 – The IMA® Inland Empire Chapter is proud to announce our January Technical Meeting. The next meeting will take place on Thursday January 19th, 2017.

This month we welcome Manfred Keil, Ph.D from Claremont McKenna College. Manfred will be presenting “Make the Inland Empire Great Again? An Economic Update with a New President”.

What does the future hold for the Inland Empire?

Dr. Keil will be addressing the following with regard to the Inland Empire economy:

- Low unemployment and decent growth: How Good Does it Feel?
- What will Make the Inland Empire Great Again?
- The effect of a Trump presidency on the U.S. and CA economy.

Professor Keil has been a professor of economics at Claremont McKenna College since 1995. He was the Chair of Faculty of the Department of Economics and The Robert Day School of Economics and Finance from 2006-2009. His expertise is macroeconomics, comparative economic performance, and statistics/econometrics. Prof. Keil has led an important summer exchange program with Yonsei University, Korea since its inception in 2011, and has developed his Silicon Valley Program course, Quantitative Data Analysis, taught to approximately 15 students in the CMC program there.

He is a Fellow of the Rose Institute (CMC) and a Research Associate of the Lowe Institute (CMC), where he leads the joint CMC-UCLA Anderson School Forecast for the Inland Empire. His current research involves minimum wages and employment trends, and business cycle analysis. Professor Keil earned his PhD in economics from the London School of Economics. He earned a Master of Science in econometrics and mathematical economics from LSE, and a Master of Arts in economics at the University of Texas, Austin.
